Our Team

The Media Genesis team includes more than 60 employees as of 2010 with diverse degrees ranging from graphic/interactive design to programming, communications to engineering, nonprofit sector studies to business administration, political science to legal and education.

Brad Frederick - Founder, CEO

With a background in Mechanical Engineering, Brad spent 12 years at EDS supporting GM and other international clients. Brad personally launched the first web presence for General Motors (www.GM.com) and all divisional websites. Today, Mr. Frederick provides consulting on infrastructure and complex application development for clients worldwide. In 2001, Brad was selected to Crain's Detroit Business 40 under 40. Brad also serves on the boards of a number of nonprofit and for-profit organizations.

Antoine Dubeauclard - President

Antoine started programming at age 7. By the late 1980s Mr. Dubeauclard was leading an international team of game developers, developing some of the earliest Internet games. Today, his role includes oversight of the creative department and studio. As an expert on Internet and application development strategy, Antoine sits on many advisory committees for Fortune 500 and academic institutions. He frequently speaks and writes on technology related issues.
